

I am not for use of of cell phone on airlines because we are not sure they do not interfere with aircraft use, how annoying to be sitting next to conversations and trying to sleep in cramped area, not to mention terrorist using the phone to plan an attack. America is just starting to feel comfortable flying again, do not approve their use.